EXCEPTIONAL CRAFTSMANSHIP, BACKED BY SOLID EXPERTISE AND SUPPORT

The beauty of Aquatic's Everyday bathware runs deep. Below the glossy AcrylX™ surface of every product are thousands of small fiberglass strands that are tightly interlocked and bonded to provide structure and rigidity. Adding to the exceptional durability of each product is Aquatic's renowned support.

Made in America

All Aquatic products are made by American workers in U.S. factories, using an unparalleled process that melds precision engineering with expert craftsmanship.

Aquatic also gives you the advantage of localized support. From our Customer Service Center in Arlington, Texas, and our multiple manufacturing and distribution facilities across the country, we'll work with you to help get your project off to a beautiful start.

Strong fleet of delivery vehicles

Aquatic is the only company in the industry to maintain a proprietary system for the nationwide distribution of products. No matter what your location, we can deliver your purchase in a professional and timely manner.

Leadership in environmental responsibility

Our nationwide network of factories and distribution facilities keeps our products close to your project site, allowing us to avoid the fuel waste of across-country shipping. Aquatic has also made a $20-million investment in pollution-control technology to preserve the integrity of the end product, while helping protect the environment.

Robust warranty coverage

We're so confident in the quality of our products, we've backed AcrylX™ with the Strength of Armorcore™ with an unprecedented lifetime limited warranty.
